PUBLIC COMMENTS:

Edward Correa – 88A East Blackwell Street – Commented, as he called it the ticket blitz, he feels like this is the norm in town and that $250 is expensive. There are hard working families in town he also feels unfair housing violations are also given. Would like to know where the money goes.

It was explained that fines or fees collected go into the general fund.

Antonio Acosta – 130 Madison Street – He wished all a Happy New Year and welcomed Alderwoman Romaine back. He commented as a kid when he walked to East Dover School he was also forced to walk in the street because sidewalks were not cleared. He feels that $250.00 is a lot of money; maybe the fine could start at $50.00. He also asked if a welcome to Dover sign could be placed by Route 15 and Mt. Pleasant Ave. He commented that the town must enforce property maintenance by the NJ Transit rail yard.

Connie Sibona-Foster – 90 Penn Ave. – thanked the town for the volunteer appreciation dinner. Asked about the status of the house she complained about at 84 Penn Ave., it has been vacant for two years and has broken windows, fence and the sidewalks are never shoveled. Alderman Visioli responded the complaint was given to Code Enforcement and a summons was issued. She also asked who a resident could write to complain about the NJ Transit property.

Daniel Martinez – 15 Lawrence St. – safety should be key, but a major concern he had was two weeks after the ticket blitz the town's leaf vac was out cleaning icy leaves which is also dangerous. He inquired about the illegal busing.

TOWN OF DOVER

Alderman Poolas responded that the leaves fell late this year and the same trucks that are used to plow snow are also used for the leaf vacs. Leaves were plowed along with snow. He stated he lives by N. Dover School and sees all the illegal busing going on. He has no sympathy for the women this is her third time caught for illegal busing.

Alderwoman Romaine stated she sat on a committee three years ago about illegal busing and changing the streets by North Dover School because of safety issues.

Amelio Lemos – 48 Second Street – stated it was difficult for the town trucks to push the snow back and feels the town should have more consideration for the amount of the fine.

Maria Tambini- 16 Blackwell Street – Asked if the illegal bus driver was being paid by parents? The answer was yes, she was being paid by parents.

Seeing no hands and hearing no voice Alderman Visioli closed the meeting to the public.

The Board was in consensus and asked Attorney Pennella to look into changing the fines. Administrator Garvin stated the current ordinance provides a fine up to $1250.00 and it is the judge's discretion on the amount of the fine.

Alderman Visioli asked for volunteers for a committee to look at our existing ordinance. The committee is Alderman Visioli, Picciallo and Donofrio.

A motion was made to adjourn at 8:22pm by Alderwoman Romaine and seconded by Alderman Timpani and passed by the following voice vote. All ayes.

Respectfully submitted,

Margaret J. Verga
