

All photographers, amateurs and professionals, who wish to participate, can participate.

Each participant can submit a photo to the contest, totally free. Additional photos will have a value of $ 5.00. All participants will be able to compete in all categories and up to five photos per category.

The photographs that compete must be accompanied by a letter that describes or expresses the meaning of the photograph. Likewise, each photograph must present a geographical description, the date the image was captured, and its name.
